Happy Summer

This is the last MRVED update of the year. With the cold weather, the end of the school year really came upon us fast! It has been another eventful year at the MRVED as we continue to assist your schools in many different ways. If you are in need of any assistance with your curriculum, instruction, or teaching throughout the summer, feel free to contact us. The MRVED staff is here for you all summer! If you are ever in Montevideo during the summer, stop in and say hello. Hope you have an enjoyable, safe, and relaxing summer. See you next school year!

MRVED Email Change

The MRVED has changed email addresses, please update your email address book to reflect the change.

TIP/RESOURCE OF THE WEEK

Archived MRVED Update

If you missed an update this year, they can all be found on the MRVED website, or by clicking here. Some of the information will be dated and some of the links may not work. There are still many great resources and tech tips to dive into this summer. If you have any questions about certain resources, please feel free to contact us.

The MRVED YouTube Channel also has all the updates archived as well as many other videos. Look for the library of videos to expand over the summer. Take a couple minutes to browse through the resources available to you.

Learning Forward National Conference

Don't forget to register for the national Learning Forward Summer Conference to be held in Minneapolis. It's not every year that Minnesota gets to host a national conference, so take advantage of this great opportunity to hear from some of the greatest minds in education.

When: July 21-24

Where: Minneapolis Hilton
